A song praising Kaiser Francis II (the last Holy Roman Emperor who dissolved the Empire and founded the Empire of Austria)

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=w81MS8qDb80 1797

(piano & singing)

- German lyrics:

Gott erhalte Franz, den Kaiser,
Unsern guten Kaiser Franz!
Lange lebe Franz, der Kaiser,
In des Glückes hellstem Glanz!
Ihm erblühen Lorbeerreiser,
Wo er geht, zum Ehrenkranz!
Gott erhalte Franz, den Kaiser,
Unsern guten Kaiser Franz!

English translation:

God save Francis the Emperor, our good Emperor Francis!
Long live Francis the Emperor in the brightest splendor of bliss!
May laurel branches bloom for him, wherever he goes, as a wreath of honor.
God save Francis the Emperor, our good Emperor Francis!

After the Unification of Germany in 1871, the song became known as

After the German Unification in 1990, the anthem starts with:

Third stanza (Germany's current National Anthem)
Einigkeit und Recht und Freiheit Für das deutsche Vaterland! Danach lasst uns alle streben Brüderlich mit Herz und Hand! Einigkeit und Recht und Freiheit Sind des Glückes Unterpfand; |: Blüh' im Glanze dieses Glückes, Blühe, deutsches Vaterland! :|	Unity and justice and freedom For the German fatherland! For these let us all strive Brotherly with heart and hand! Unity and justice and freedom Are the pledge of fortune; |: Flourish in this fortune's blessing, Flourish, German fatherland! :|

- Apart from solo sonatas, string quartets and symphonies, Haydn had written a very popular Trumpet Concerto that all trumpet players must play.

Trumpet Concerto in Eb major, 1796 with three movements:

Fast-slow-fast

The third movement was widely used including BBC signature tune.

1st movement. Trumpet: Maurice André (the world's best trumpeter)

Eisenstadt, Austria

Concluding this session

1. Multi-linear Baroque style gave way to clear texture and less complicated Classical style;
2. More public audience participated in concerts;
3. Orchestra became standardized;
4. Gradually moving away from religious themes;
5. Piano replaced harpsichord;
6. Though German speaking regions were the driving force and Haydn was the pioneer; yet London was another place that helped the new works to spread out.

Enjoying music!

- Listen to the music not only once, but at least a few times, then you will be able to feel. Let's not discuss to understand or not. Art is to be felt and not necessarily understood.
